

Job Description- The Falcon Playhouse

Job Title: Prop Master

About the Role:

The prop master's job is to keep track and oversee the production of all props and set dressing used in the show. The prop master will have to be in constant communication with other departments. A good prop master should be a very creative person with an eye for detail.

Responsibilities:

- Read the script and infer props outside of what the prop list states.
- Create a comprehensive prop list
- Source, buy, alter, and design props
- Delegate jobs to team members
- Organize and manage props backstage

Candidate Requirements:

- Organization
- Patience!!!!
- Leadership / Delegation skills
- Good description skills
- Resourcefulness- seeing the potential to change things into what you need and being able to find deals
- Meeting deadlines

Apply Now!

Join our Remind (@fptheatre) to receive updates for our productions, and refer to our link tree @srhsfalconplayhouse on Instagram to access our tech application.